Claims Rejections – 35 USC 102/103

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Overbaugh. Overbaugh discloses a golf ball tee formed from a strip of flat material having a pointed end (11) and a recessed tail end (11) and an opening (13) sufficiently large to admit a rubber golf ball tee. Because of the symmetry of the ends (11), the tee is capable of mass production by stamping (see column 1, lines 55-61).

In the alternative, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to form the ends so that they are capable of mass production in order to quickly and efficiently produce the tees.

Claims Rejections – 35 USC 103

1. Claims 2-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Overbaugh. Regarding claims 2 and 3, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to round the points on the ends of the tee of Overbaugh in order to limit the possibility of the tee cutting the user.

Regarding claim 4, note column 1, lines 55 and 6 stating that the tee is formed from cardboard or similar sheet material. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to form the tee from a rubberized cardboard that is capable of bending in order to provide a more sturdy tee that will withstand more abuse.

Conclusion

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
